PART I—Section 2.

GENERAL.

No. G. 13443—G. M. 515-17-18, dated 2*nd April* 1918.

The New Indian Guests' Quarters at Mysore will be closed to the public from the 18th to the 30th April 1918, as it is required for use in connection with the ensuing Second Session of the Representative Assembly.

No. G. 13449—G. M. 239-17-8, dated 3*rd April* 1918.

The following notification of the Government of India, Department of Education, No. 78, dated 4th March 1918, directing certain addition to the Ecclesiastical Rules published under Notification No. G. 147—G. M. 76-12-6, dated 5th July 1913, is published for general information and for the guidance of the officers concerned:—

The Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct that the following shall be added as Appendix C to the Ecclesiastical Rules published with the Department of Education Notification No. 212, dated the 10th May 1913:—

Rules regulating the provision of electric installations for the lighting and ventilation of churches.

1. Towards the initial outlay of electric lights and fan installations Government will pay not more than—

Rs. 300 per 100 sittings for lights,
Rs. 540 per 100 sittings for fans,

subject to the following conditions:—

(a) for sittings not reserved by Government, the Government contribution will be limited to half the actual cost, subject to the maxima of—
Rs. 150 per 100 sittings for lights,
Rs. 270 per 100 sittings for fans,

(b) for sittings reserved by Government for Military, Railway or other Government servants, the full proportionate cost will be paid by Government, subject to the maxima of Rs. 300 and Rs. 540 per 100 sittings for lights and fans respectively.

II. The cost of current will be paid by the Church authorities or congregations, except where sittings are reserved by Government for Military, Railway or other Government servants, in which case Government will pay a proportionate share of the cost of current, subject to the following maxima:—

For lighting.—5 B.T. units per 100 reserved sittings per mensem.

For fans.—12 B.T. units per 100 reserved sittings per mensem during the recognised punkah season.

III. The installations will be maintained by Government, who will bear all expenses in connection with repairs, maintenance and renewals (except the renewals of bulbs), but for such sittings as are not reserved by Government, the Church authorities or congregations will pay yearly to Government a sum equal to 4 per cent of the initial cost of the installation for those sittings.

These charges will be payable in the first month of each year.

IV. These rules apply only to cases where current is available from a public supply and not to self-contained installations.

V. The prior sanction of the Government of India must be obtained for all electric installations.

VI. Where Government at present makes a recurring allowance towards the cost of lighting such allowance will be continued.

VII. These rules apply primarily to churches which are the property of Government. But the Government of India have power to make contributions at rates not exceeding those prescribed in the foregoing rules to Churches which are not the property of Government but to which Government make grants under the Ecclesiastical Rules or towards the cost of construction of which Government have made contributions.
